

The Mass Wing Sentinel

Volume 1, Issue 5

Special Encampment Edition

05 August 04

//FLY ARMY//

The cadets of 2004 MAWG Encampment were able to have the privilege of riding in the US Army's UH-1 Iroquois, commonly known as the Huey. With the doors wide open, cadets were treated to a unique view of the Massachusetts skyline in helicopters that have been a workhorse for the Army since Vietnam.

Clockwise from top: Cadets let their boots hang out the Huey's door. Cape Cod Canal, as seen from the helo. A Huey preparing for takeoff.

Francois

With the utmost sadness, we must report that the first attempt to rescue our beloved Francois has failed.

The elite squad of eight staff cadets headed out under cover of darkness to Miles Standish State Forest, where the infamous BSA was holding Francois. Navigating through dense foliage aided by lensatic compasses and unerring sense of direction that is second nature to CAP, the team reached their objective. Unfortunately, the BSA was holding its nightly marshmallow roast and spotted them through the trees. In the heavy firefight that followed, six of the squad's members were badly hit. When they beat back the enemy they learned that Francois had been in the camp. Numerous scales were found. It is assumed that he was secretly extracted by several Den Mothers during the skirmish.

"We were outmanned 20 to 1 and could not see through the hail of artillery." said the squad leader dripping

My Giant(s) Lt deBros, the Admin OIC, and SM Beepath, the Security OIC are easily recognized by their enormous stature. Below, they tower over C/Capt Raquel Ayala, a Stan/Eval Team member. We've yet to decide which one is more intimidating.

Faith Department

Finding Strength

O, mighty Lord, I pray that you will be my shield as I do battle against ignorance, cruelty, and injustice. Through your unending love, I pray that you grant me goodness and steadfastness, so that I might lead others to do your will and glorify your name. Amen

...Continued from the fish story on the other side

melted marshmallow, graham cracker crumbs and chocolate onto the microphone. "But we will never give up."

The attempt would at least be a morale booster for Francois and hopefully will never reveal our secrets," added the commandant. "He knows that his fellow cadets will find him."

Words of Wisdom From C/Lt. Molloy

Congratulations cadets! The week is now half over and you have performed very well. Hang in there. Before you know it, encampment will be over and you will be wishing to stay, so enjoy yourselves and keep up the good work.

Safety Corner

The corner devoted to all things safety

Though commonly confused, the Safety Briefing and The Safety Dance, the popular 1980's hit by Men Without Hats, have nothing in common.

Not only does C/Lt. Molloy, below, inspire his cadets, he most likely also digs safety.

CAP Safety Pledge
I pledge that I will do my part to foster a safe environment, to be a responsible steward of CAP resources, and to prepare myself to meet the challenges that face America.

To the Mother of C/Justin Cunningham

Hi Mommy,

I would just like to let you know that I am having a great time at encampment. In fact, I just got done jumping out of a Huey without a parachute, and doing a leadership reaction course 50 feet above the mine field. Unfortunately, we lost three cadets and one of the senior members. However, the Army's new mine technology proved to work very effectively.

In addition, all of the corps cadets Even though the cadets and myself found out that Nomar Garciaparra have been pushed to their limits, we was traded to the cubs for $1.75. still have a long way to go. Tomorrow This very unfortunate information row we get to stand in back of the caused rioting among the cadets in F-15 to feel just how powerful the which the end result was another two backwash from the turbines can get. cadets lost to fights with riot police. We will also be having inexperienced The staff told us today that the hard ended corps cadets drive the APC part of encampment is over and that through the barracks with live ammunition. I just cant wait. begin to cease. The staff also said Your loving son, Justin Cunningham they would stop using flash bang grenades to wake up the cadets.

None of us are Air Force meteorologists on the HQ staff, so here it goes:

Today's Weather
Cold, wet, and, uh, miserable

Tomorrow's Weather
Hopefully better, 75*/Isolated T-storms

Tomorrow's UOD
Battle Dress Uniform

C/Lt. Massi wearing them —>

Right: C/Lt. Massi watches cadets in the Army Aviation hangar.

